DISHOOM KX GODOWN

HISTORY

The first frozen water was shipped to Bombay from Boston in 1834 — six inch slabs of a New England river. The Parsi merchant prince by name of Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy was the first person to serve ice at a Bombay dining party. It was subsequently reported by The Samachar that his distinguished guests all caught a cold.

We admire the most excellent qualities of compassion and charity in Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy. He grew from humble orphaned ‘bottle-walla’ to become Bombay’s pre-eminent industrialist, and distributed much of his vast fortune to the needing. Never before or after has Bombay borne a son with such a big heart. We give Sir JJ the place of honour in our list.

One-Of-A-Kind

GODOWN COCKTAILS

By The Peg

Bottle-aged or cask-aged Old-Fashioned style drinks. The first strong taste is mellowed slowly by the constantly-melting ice.

Such drinks are served by the peg. Chota peg is small, whilst burra peg is not. (Always keep two strings to your bow.)

Placed in the midst of your tray is the apothecary bottle, a dish of hand-chipped ice and cut-glass tumbler.

CHOTA PEG ... 100ML ... 9.00

BURRA PEG ... 200ML ... 18.00

SIR JEEJEEBHOY

A bottle-aged Old-Fashioned wherein Ceylon Arrack is lengthened with coconut water and orange bitters. A delicate clear gold jewel. Warning: the soft and innocent taste contains liquor.

CHAI PAANCH

Lemon shrub with Johnnie Walker Black Label, Ceylon arrack, House Chai, Gosling's dark rum, and two liqueurs: one ginger, one 80% cocoa. Clear, complicated and sweet.

IPA PAANCH

Convince yourself of masculinity: tastes of tobacco, leather and peat are here in Dishoom hop-infused gin, lime, jaggery, English Breakfast Tea and spices. Your expression will be serious.

VICEROY'S
OLD-FASHIONED

The sort of drink in which Lord Mountbatten may have found welcome repose. A bottle-aged muddle of bourbon, bayleaf reduction, green tea and so on. Like an old Raj club-room, with tertiary colours and artistic composition.

SONIA'S NEGRONI

The Italian lady goes native. Equal parts of Hayman's London Dry Gin, bitter Campari and Dishoom vermouth (macarated with vanilla, cinnamon and ginger). Bottle-aged for smooth tawny intensity.

TANCHOI FIX

The China trade turned opium, spice and silk into merchant fortune, and dressed fortunate merchant wives in best Tanchoi silk. Aged in oak, a refreshing mandarin shrub, ginger, Hayman's 1850 Reserve gin, etc., etc., etc., dashed off with quinine and fiery Szechuan pepper.

HORNIMAN'S
OLD-FASHIONED

We use the smoked oak barrel to age best rum, pineapple syrup and bitters. Named for the upstanding editor of the Bombay Chronicle. Excessive consumption may lead to lack of censorship, inflammatory statements, and ultimately, deportation.

BOMBAY PRESIDENCY PUNCH

A recipe first written down by General Sir John Gayer, Governor of the East India Company's Bombay Presidency.

A magnificent sharing concoction of jaggery, lime, Darjeeling tea and Ceylon Arrack, served over cubed ice in a vintage bowl. Ladle into the dainty cups and crumble in the jaggery, to taste. It would be ornamental were it not so good to drink.

Sir John's predecessor warned in 1676:

"The usual effects of that accursed Bombay punch involves its consumers besotting themselves with drunkenness, and then quarreling, dueling and committing any number of other acts, to the shame, scandal and ruine of our nation and religion."

As such the Bombay Presidency Punch is only to be shared amongst a minimum of four people.
